

ESCALAS QUE CONECTAN

Volunteer & Community Project – Andalusia 2025

About Me

Hi! I'm Cora, 35, based in Montpellier (France). I founded Pépite Coffee, a mobile coffee shop focused on connection, and creativity. With a background in marketing, entrepreneurship, and design, I bring a mix of hands-on energy and creative ideas.

My 2025 Project

From January to March, I'm traveling through rural Andalusia, looking to:

- Volunteer in meaningful projects
- Connect with locals
- Improve my Spanish
- Explore a potential long-term relocation

What I Can Offer

- Coffee & Connection: set up a pop-up café, locals meet coworkers
- Creative projects: Lead creative workshops, community events
- Hands-on help: communication, social media, admin, DIY, workshop facilitation
- Village Connection: link locals with visitors, Build creative ways to highlight local stories

All-Round Skills

- Digital & Creative : social media, branding, web design, basic photo / video editing
- Entrepreneurial Mindset : zero-to-launch know-how
- Manual & Practical : DIY, light repairs, setup logistics
- People & Connecting : Facilitation, group energy, creating meaningful & inclusive moments

What Matters to Me

I'm not just looking for a place to stay – I'm looking for a place to get involved, meet people, and be useful. Spain has been on my mind for years Now I'm taking three months to explore this more seriously.

What matters to me is creating real connections, being part of local life, and offering what I know how to do.

Whether I bring my mobile café or not, what drives me is people, creativity, and finding ways to contribute in a meaningful way.
